REPUBLIC OF HAWAII

The New Form of Government for the Sandwich Islands.

PROVISIONS OF CONSTITUTION

Adopted-Modelfed After the United States, Differing Only in a Few Features-Property Qualifications for Voters and Members of the Legislature-The President and His Cab-

Victoria, B. C., June 11. - The steamer, Arawa, from Australia ports. brought a number of notable passengers in the person of delegates from the South sea colonies to the inter colonial trade conference to be held in Ottawa. They are all anxious for closer relatiouship with Canada, and the conference will be one of the most notable in colonial history. The proposed British cable from Canada to Australia and the annexation of Samoa or the future of that country at least, besides the commercial feature of intercolonial trade. development and legislation necessary in that direction, will form the confer ence programme.

The republic of Hawaii is the form of government decided upon, the territory to include all previously known as the kingdom of Hawaii and the right of utilizenship is extended to:

First, persons born in the Hawaiian islands.

Second, persons naturalized accord-ing to the laws enacted in this behalf. Third, persons who, not being Ha-waiian citizens, have taken an active part in the formation of the republic or part in the formation of the republic or supported the provisional government, in whose cases all usual qualifications are to be waived.

The process of naturalization is similar to that of the United States, applicants being required to have at least one year's residence in the islands and with the intention of permanent location. They must also be able to both read and write and speak the English language and to explain in English intelligently any part or ports of the constitution.

The executive power is invested in the president and cabinet of ministers as follows:

Minister of foreign affairs, minister of the interior, minister of finance and attorney general. The president is required to be not less than thirty-five years of aye, a parity of the islands or a years of age, a native of the islands or a years of age, a native of the islands or a resident therein for not less than fifteen years, and a citizen. He shall be elected to hold office for six years and cannot succeed himself in office. The president with the approval of the sounte appoints members of the cabinet, judges of the supreme and circuit courts. The auditor general and diplomatic or consular representatives to foreign countries. Minor appointments of officials of all classes resident in the country are also to be named by try are also to be named by the president and his cabinet. The power of parlon, except in cases of impeachment, rests with the president. After the president came the minister of foreign affairs, minister of the interior, minister of finance and attorney general, in order of priority as named, who shall be ex-officio members of both houses with all rights except that of voting. All legislative powers are vested in a legislature consisting of two houses, a senate and a house of reprevested in a legislature consisting of two houses, a senate and a house of repro-sentatives, which shall organize and sit separately, except as especially pro-vided otherwise. The senate shall con-sist of fifteen members, and be elected to hold office for six years. The house of representatives also shall consist of fitteen members, elected every second year.

A senator must be a male citizen of not less than thirty years of age and three years a resident, and must be the owner of property in the republic worth $5,000 above possible incumberance, with a money income of not less than $1,800 per annum. Ropresentatives may be of any age over twenty-five years with a property qualification of $1,000 and an income of $600. The first regular session of the legislature shall convene on the third Wednesday in February, 1896, and bienninily there after in Honolulu. Sessions are limited to one hundred and twenty days and special sessions may be called by the president. Voters for senators are required to prove a property qualification, quired to prove a property qualification of $3,000 and an income of $500.

MARRIETA COLLEGE.

Special Disputch to the Intelligencer.

MARRIETA, O., June 11.—Commencement week in Marrieta means a week of cial and intellectual pleasure. Yesterday the opening exercises of the dixia commencement of Marrieta colwas inaugurated by two splendid addresses.

In the morning Dr. John W. Simpson, president of the college, preached the bacca laurente sermon to the graduating cla-s. It was a powerful, elequent-and appropriate sermon which right to inspire those who heard it to strive for real manhood in life. In the evening Dr. G. S. Burrough's, D. D. Ph. The Bethany boys put up a magnificent game.

The prize declamation contest came off this evening at the First Congrezational church and was of unusual interest and members of the Freshmen and Sophomore classos participated.

The city opera house was the scene of the annual commencement ball this evening. It was a brilliant affair in every way and brought together a large number of prominent poople.

The exercises proper this year continue throughout Thursday and will embrace many new features, which will make the commencement memorable. The attendance is larger than it has been for years. been for years.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., June 11 .- Ex-Governor Wilson addressed a small audience at the court house to-day. The speech was of about the usual length, and confined chiefly to the tariff. He mentioned that several so-called Demomentioned that several so-called Demo-cratic members of the United States senate were "tarred with the Republi-"can stick, and served notice that they must follow the procession or get out of it. He said "the Democrat who preaches protection is in the wrong pew. If he can't follow the principles of his party he ought at least get out of office. STEUBANVILLE, O., June 11 .- All the candidates are on hand for the congressional convention to-morrow, and a deadlock from present indications is morally certain. The convention will be called to order at II o'clock by Mayor Moore, of Barnesville. S. B. McGav-aran, of Cadiz, will be temporary chair-man and William Cooke, of Woodsfield, secretary. The permanent organiza-tion will not be effected until after din-ner, and after presentation of candi-dates there will be but few ballots until evening.

Hollingsworth is making a game Hollingsworth is making a game fight and expects support from Belmont. Danford claims the entire sixty-six votes from Belmont after a few ballots. Gill is fighting hard and has assurances of support from all of the other counties. Taylor and Keepers are laying low, while the former is the second choice of quite a number of delegates. No nomination can be made the first day.
